LRBS Seminars 2026-27

October 2026

Dr Peter Masters: The biblical concept of the local church, its scriptural policy and ideals, its labours, its ministry and government, its officers and their appointment and functions, common church problems, their causes and solutions.

Pastor Roger Brazier: A survey of Jeremiah - with special attention to principal themes and applications for preaching.

November 2026

Dr James Grier: The glorious doctrine of the Trinity - and its implications for all doctrine and Christian living.

Dr Masters: A compendium of evangelistic arguments and illustrations – in Ecclesiastes a great range of illustrated ideas for seeking salvation are presented, all of them frequently preached by the worthies of more evangelistic days, but now virtually unknown.

December 2026

Dr Masters: The regulative and normative principles, and the biblical limits imposed on 'contextualisation' (i.e. what are the biblical rules for discerning whether any commanded duty is permanently binding, or applicable only to Bible times?)

Pastor Christopher Buss: A survey of Ezekiel - with special attention to principal themes and applications for preaching.

January 2027

Dr Masters: Subjective spiritual experience in the Christian life correctly understood and pursued (pastoral teaching stands or falls on this issue), together with the quest for divine guidance in the major turning points of life.

Rev John Thackway: A survey of Psalms - with special attention to principal themes and applications for preaching.

February 2027

Dr Masters: Preparatory stages of biblical exposition for teaching ministry, with special reference to parallelism, sensus plenior, and dual or multiple senses in prophecy. Twenty-one steps for message-preparation.

Pastor Roland Burrows: A survey of Ephesians - with special attention to principal themes and applications.

March 2027

Dr Masters: Teaching biblical standards and spiritual rewards, concerning family life, materialism and leisure, avoiding legalism on the one hand, and worldliness on the other.

Pastor Jack Seaton: A survey of Numbers - with special attention to principal themes and applications.

Dr E S Williams: The psycho-secular model of depression contrasted with the biblical view, and response.

April 2027

Dr Masters: An All-Round Ministry- the 'departments' of preaching to be honoured, the elements of worship and the essential components of a church 'programme', together with the attached promises.

Dr Masters: The Distinctive and Special Features of Mark and Luke for Message Preparers

Rev William Vernon Higham: Personal Holiness

May 2027

Dr Masters: Principles of biblical interpretation - a brief overview of the new, deeply flawed methods that have caught hold in evangelical seminaries and books, contrasted with the old ways of the Reformation tradition.

Pastor Roger Brazier: The role of women in the church

Pastor Christopher Buss: An agenda for the prayer life of a pastor

June 2027

Dr Masters: Puritan evangelistic remonstrance - a review of the numerous lines of argument and encouragement used in Puritan evangelistic sermons and tracts, addressed directly to both unbelieving and seeking people.

Pastor Chris Hand: A survey of Philippians - with special attention to principal themes and applications.

Pastor Hand: Building biblical churches in an entertainment society.
